

An illustration of a house with a dark blue gabled roof and a light yellow wall. A window is cut out, and a pulley system is installed. A rope runs from a hook on the roof down to a red pulley on the wall, then up to another red pulley on the roof. A brown bag labeled 'ENGRAIS' is suspended from the lower pulley. The house has a brown wooden fence in front. The background shows a green lawn and a blue sky.
